Nate and Chris

Please see below from Commissioner Coffia. I have revised the amended board rules to remove any references to the invocation policy and pension obligation. Unless there are any concerns or need of any other changes, I would suggest amending the packet as she has requested. Thanks

Chris

Subject: Issue with the amended Board Rules as presented

To: Christopher Forsyth <cforsyth@grandtraverse.org>, Kit Tholen <ktholen@grandtraverse.org>

Chris and Kit,

In reviewing the packet for Jan. 16 BOC meeting, I noted some edits/changes to the presented amended Board Rules that were not explained in your accompanying memo, and do not belong in a set of changes your memo represented as already affirmatively voted on by the board. To be sure my memory served of what changes we actually approved v. Tabled etc., I went back and watched the video again and reviewed Bonnie's draft minutes to double check.

In the memo you attached to the amended Board Rules, your recommended resolution is to "approve the amended County Board Rules of Order as presented." However, I am concerned that the document that is meant to represent the amended Board Rules we decided on by board vote, also contains changes that were "not" approved by the board Jan. 2 at our organizational meeting. I am further concerned that those changes were not called out or explained in any way in the memo and that the presented amended Board Rules are being recommended for approval by a single motion when they include 2 items that were specifically tabled by us Jan. 2.

The language of concern is as follows, in bold:

Packet p. 190, board rule 5.4 a the addition of the words "or invocation." This language change was not proposed, voted on or approved by the board Jan. 2 at our organizational meeting and should not be included in the amended Board Rules in our Jan. 16 packet.

Packet p. 190 board rule 5.4 e

The item "Pension obligation informational update" has been added as item e.

While the concept of a Pension Obligation Information Update was proposed in a motion at the Jan. 2, 2019 organizational meeting by Chairman Hentschel, it was ultimately tabled by my motion, Chair Hentschel's second and a unanimous board vote, until the Jan. 16 meeting.

This language addition was not approved, and should not be included in the amended Board Rules in our Jan. 16 packet.

Packet p. 190-191 *

Under the asterisk just beneath the final item listed alphabetically for the board meeting's Order of Business, new language has been added to reflect an Invocation Policy.

Our board tabled and did not approve an invocation policy nor agree or vote to add this requested language at our Jan. 2 organizational meeting. In fact, this tabled issue appears on our Jan. 16 agenda after the board rules approval. It is not proper that we approve this language prior to taking up the tabled motion again; inclusion seems to presume passage of the resolution, which is not guaranteed. This language should not be included in the amended Board Rules in our Jan. 16 packet.

Packet p. 191 board rule 5.4 +

Next to the plus sign beneath the final item listed alphabetically for the board meeting's Order of Business, new language references the tabled motion by Chairman Hentschel regarding adding a pension obligation info update to our standing agenda. However that motion was tabled, not adopted. The language added next to the plus sign referencing this pension update, was not proposed nor approved by the board at our Jan. 2 organizational meeting. It should not be included in the amended Board Rules in our Jan. 16 packet.

My understanding is that the board rules are made and changed solely by vote of the board, while considering any staff requests for changes, which must also be voted on and approved. As you know, the process we followed Jan. 2 was that any proposed changes were made one at a time by a board member, with rationale given for our consideration. The changes were not to be made unless and until said changes were voted in by the majority.
