FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*
New County Plat Books Available

December 28, 2016

Traverse City - Who owns property Grand Traverse County? Thousands of land owners are listed in the new plat book sponsored by the Grand Traverse County Equalization/GIS Department and published by Mapping Solutions. The 2017 book is available for purchase for $35.00 plus tax at the County Treasurer's office located at 400 Boardman Avenue, Traverse City and from the County Parks and Recreation Office at 1213 W. Civic Center Drive, Traverse City. For purchasing information, call (231) 922-4735.

This book includes aerial view maps opposite the landownership map pages. The 96-page spiral-bound book features township and range maps of Grand Traverse County. These maps include the property boundaries for many rural parcels within the township, the name of the owner, and the number of acres owned. Also, there is a landowner index for easy cross referencing.

The County Parks with aerial views are featured as well as Municipal maps with aerial views of Fife Lake, Kingsley and Traverse City. A new feature in this publication is an index of the initialed parcels for easy reference. There is also an explanation of the public land survey system.

Visit www.mappingsolutionsGIS.com to purchase these additional products:

- a "SmartMap" for a smart phone or tablet, which allows a user to view his/her location on the map and track real-time movement with a GPS device; it also has the capability to measure distances and areas, show points of interest, photos, position and label names, and more
- a digital version of the plat book, or "e-Book" that may be accessed on a tablet, laptop or PC
- premium 36-by-48-inch wall maps
