

Mr. Attwood joined the Grand Traverse County Prosecutor's Office in 2013. He became Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in January, 2019. Mr. Attwood specializes in cases involving Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.

Mr. Attwood earned his Juris Doctor Degree, magna cum laude, from Michigan State University College of Law in 2009. He also holds a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree from Davenport University and an Associate in Applied Science Degree in Aviation – Flight Technology from Northwestern Michigan College.

Immediately following law school graduation, Mr. Attwood completed a one-year judicial clerkship with Judge Michael J. Beale of the Michigan 42nd Circuit Court. Upon completion of the clerkship, Mr. Attwood moved back to Traverse City and worked as a civil litigator and general practitioner at a local law firm. In 2012, he took an appointment as an assistant prosecutor in Kalkaska County, where he worked until accepting an appointment at the Grand Traverse Prosecutor's Office.

Mr. Attwood was born and raised in Traverse City and graduated from Traverse City Central High School, where he met his wife Kate. He is a member of the Traverse Bay Sunrise Rotary Club and the State Bar of Michigan. Mr. Attwood resides in Long Lake Township with his wife and their two sons.