Needs Assessment Update

Ritter provided an update on the mental health contract, which has been in place for about 2 months and indicated they are already seeing success in the program.

Ritter provided an update on the needs assessment, indicating there is interest from the vendor who will be looking into the scope of work.

Wheelock indicated the Board of Commissioners capped the expenditure at $10,000 and recommended moving forward with an hourly contract. The CJCC (Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee) will review the results of the assessment when complete.

Recommendation by Wheelock to continue to move forward with the contract authorized in November with James Robertson of Voorhis/Robertson Justice Services and Mark Goldman of Mark Goldman and Associates to evaluate the current facility and complete the needs assessment and dissolve the ad hoc at this point.
